

WRITING WITH IMAGINATION

Seven Sessions with Dorit Winter

Experience the joy of creativity
as you harness your imagination through word-power.

Whether you work in an office, write sentences for children, want to be more precise, or just want to have fun, you'll find your way to the essence of a sentence in this stress-free class.

We'll sharpen outer observation and memory so as to strengthen the inner eye of imagination.

All levels of background and experience welcome.

"The highest exercise of imagination is not to devise what has no existence, but rather to perceive what really exists."

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
